

The information you give on this form will only be used, in confidence, to enable People to Places to monitor that its workforce better reflects the community it serves.

The overall aim of the People to Places's Equality and Diversity Policy is to ensure that no job applicants, employees, residents or service users receive less favourable treatment on any grounds which cannot be shown to be justified. These include race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religious beliefs, gender, marital status, responsibility for children or other dependants, disability, sexual orientation, transsexuality, age, trade union or political activities, social class, where the person lives or spent convictions.

All stages of recruitment are monitored to check that unfair discrimination is not taking place. It is very important that you complete this form in full to help us check that our recruitment and selection processes are fair.
